

Comcast is my high speed internet provider. I have had the service for 3 years and I have had numerous problems. When i needed help they would mess up and send out a tv tech instead of an internet tech. Also, my node is over subscribed which makes for very slow internet access and it is unacceptable for high-speed internet. I hope they also raise the caps.